The Chapter must agree to the rules set by Student Corps. If any of these terms are broken, Student Corps may prohibit the chapter from further using the Student Corps brand.

These rules can be found at <https://studentcorps.org/about/rules-and-regulations/>.

Please answer the following questions concerning the rules. All answers should be obvious, after a thorough readthrough of the rules, linked above.

1. When can chapters submit applications?
2. When does the volunteer year begin and end?
3. How many national events does a chapter have to complete in one volunteer year?
4. What are the five types of awards students can receive from Student Corps, depending on how many hours of volunteer service they have completed?
5. When are the due dates for quarterly reports?

Finally, please sign below to demonstrate that you have read the rules and regulations, and that you will uphold the leadership and community values of the Student Corps community.

We, the board members of the new chapter, “_____,” promise that we have read the rules (linked above) thoroughly, and we understand our responsibilities as leaders within a national organization. We promise to stay in close communication with the national headquarters, and uphold the principles and reputation of Student Corps. We understand that our actions reflect the Student Corps community, and we understand that if we violate these rules, Student Corps may terminate our relationship.
